“Mr. Kierstead has provided excellent support and service from before the contract was initiated until after the contract was completed. He provided expert guidance and personalized tips and information throughout the interview process. His commitment continued after the successful interview by providing detailed information about the city where the position was located – including places to stay. And his support to the contractor continued at this high level until the contract term ended, including periodic calls “just to see how things were going”.”

“From the beginning of the process through the end of the process, Bryan was always extremely professional and made sure that all of my needs were taken care of. He made sure that I understood the position and that I would be happy with the new role. I felt like he was on my side the whole time, he was there for me. I felt like I was not just a number or a lead, I felt like Bryan really cared. Even after I received the position, Bryan still maintains in contact with me to ensure that I am happy. I recommend Bryan to anyone, he is a great asset to his company and I am sure he will thrive with any new opportunity that could be presented to him. I am so happy with his work that I am referring friends of mine to Bryan.”

G.G. - Livermore, CA

“Linda is objective, helpful, informative, and goal-oriented. It was clear to me, she did not want to waste the company’s or my time when considering my candidacy. Linda is a great coach and knows how to assess talent and the needs of RH’s clients!

Linda is the embodiment of your firm’s Mission Statement. She was the sole person with whom I dealt at Russ Hadick. Linda follows through, she does what she says she is going to do. She shared timing, and all levels of the client’s, Russ Hadick’s, and her personal expectations with me in a precise and professional manner.

In my experience, I have never had the level of Linda’s advocacy during any recruitment process in which I’ve been involved. She is highly selective, ethical, efficient, straightforward and approaches her work with the Christian work ethic and values your firm espouses.”

J.M. – Dayton, OH

M.K. - Sidney, OH

"I am sincerely grateful for the time and efforts you have put into helping me secure this opportunity with your client. The interviewing tips your provided to me were a great help. D.F. – New Lebanon, OH

"I've dealt with a few recruiters before during my career, but none of them took the time to get to know me or show a level of care for the companies that they are referring candidates to like Mr. Hadick did. As soon as the process was over and I had an offer in my hand, I was passing Mr. Hadick's information off to my friends telling them of the wonderful experience I just had. The way he spoke about people he's placed in the company I was interviewing with was more like a friend talking about friends, not as if they were just dollar signs. Right from the start I felt comfortable with Mr. Hadick and his company. I got the feeling that even though I feel I've got a secure long term position, that my dealings with Mr. Hadick and company is over, it will just migrate from client to friend."
